

French language courses (FLE)

Autograf offers two programmes addressed to foreign students who wish to study Design in France but lack the language level required to directly join Bachelor's or Master's programmes taught in French.

FLE Art is conceived for students with no previous studies in the field of art and does not require knowledge of the French language. The programme includes a FLE course in general French, with a focus on arts-oriented texts and vocabulary, cultural visits and beginner's courses in artistic culture and techniques (drawing, plastic arts, DTP ...).

Students will obtain a training certificate.

FLE Design is conceived for students with at least three years of studies in the artistic domain of Graphic Design, Digital Design, Video Game Design or Interior Design.

This one-year programme is aimed at students wishing to perfect their French skills in order to join our state-certified Master's programmes and wanting to improve their artistic practice while learning French.

This programme lasts one year and is organised as follows on a 3-week basis:

- 2 weeks : FLE course

- 1 week : Design course of the Bachelor's Degree in Graphic Design, in Interior Design or in Video Game Design. French language level required: B1

Students will obtain a language certificate for the FLE course and the European Diploma equivalent to a 3-year Bachelor's Degree in Graphic Design, in Interior Design, or in Video Game Design.
